

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

Cr. No. 07- -01-

ROBERT WOLFFE

INDICTMENT

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

COUNT ONE

Accessory After the Fact
18 U.S.C. §3

1. On or about January 18, 2007, the last day of a trial that started on January 9, a jury returned verdicts convicting Edward Brown and Elaine Brown of conspiracy and a number of federal tax crimes.

2. The jury returned its verdict against Edward Brown in his absence. After the third day of evidence, January 11, 2007, Edward Brown returned to his and Elaine Brown's joint residence in Plainfield, N.H., and never came back to court. On January 12, 2007, a federal warrant was issued for Edward Brown's arrest based upon his failure to appear for the completion of his trial.

3. Elaine Brown also failed to appear for what was to be the fourth day of evidence but, after a brief continuance of the proceedings, she returned for the remainder of the trial. Whereupon she was convicted and then released on bail pending sentencing. Shortly thereafter, however, she was charged with violating conditions of her release pending sentencing by removing an electronic monitoring ankle bracelet and returning to her residence where Ed Brown remained. A federal warrant was issued for her arrest.

4. On April 24, 2007, Edward Brown and Elaine Brown were each sentenced to sixty-three (63) months in prison. Neither Edward Brown nor Elaine Brown appeared for the sentencing proceeding and the sentences against them were imposed in their absence.

5. While the Browns have been fugitives, officers of the United States Marshals Service have made efforts to arrest them. During the same period of time, the Browns have remained inside the boundaries of the property on which their home is located, and they have publicly stated their intention to forcibly resist any effort to arrest them.

6. Beginning at a date uncertain but in or about January 2007 and continuing through to the date of this Indictment, in the District of New Hampshire and elsewhere, the defendant, knowing that offenses against the United States had been committed by Edward Brown and Elaine Brown, to wit: conspiracy and a number of federal tax crimes, received, relieved, comforted and assisted Edward Brown and Elaine Brown in order to hinder and prevent their apprehension and punishment, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3.

7. Robert Wolfe has received, relieved, comforted and assisted Edward Brown and Elaine Brown in order to hinder and prevent their apprehension and punishment in that he has aided them and provided to them personal and material support, including but not limited to the following:

a. providing a 1992 Chevrolet Caprice to the Browns which has been used by other supporters of the Browns to run errands and gather supplies for the Browns;

b. conducting counter-surveillance of the Deputy U.S. Marshals;

c. providing armed security for the Browns;

d. making his residence available as a point of trans-shipment for supplies to the Browns, including food, for delivery to the Browns.

In violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3.
